

Hugoye Symposium V
Liturgy in the Syriac Tradition

June 25–26, 2019

Hosted by

Beth Mardutho Research Library, Piscataway, N.J. & Archdiocese for the Eastern United States

Venue: Mor Aphrem Center, NJ, 55 West Midland Ave, Paramus, NJ 08854

Tuesday, June 25

Arrival & Registration

Wednesday, June 26

8:00 Morning Prayers

9:00 Breakfast

10:00 Symposium Opening

Welcome: Mor Dionysius John Kawak

First Mawtbā

10:15 Iskandar Bcheiry (American Theological Library Association)

Liturgical practices according to a newly discovered document of Syriac orthodox synodical canons from the ninth century

10:45 Roger Akhrass (Department of Syriac Studies, Syriac Orthodox Patriarchate / Université Saint-Esprit de Kaslik)

The Virgin Mary in the Shimo and the Early Syriac Fathers

11:15 Coffee/Tea break

11:30 Justin Arnwine (Vanderbilt University)

“Those who Say ‘Suffering and Death on God, Lord of All’”: Isho’yahb III, Rhetoric of Orthodoxy, and the Eucharist

12:00 Andrés Mércz (Avicenna Institute of Middle Eastern Studies)

New Discoveries on Andreas Masius’ lost copy of the Anaphora of Saint Basil

12:30 Khalid Dinno (University of Toronto)

The Impact of Arabic Translation on the Syrian Orthodox Revival of the Twentieth Century

1:00 Lunch

Second Mawtbā

2:30 Gabriel Barsauma (St. Ignatius University)

There is no place like home: phenomenological perspectives on liturgical space.

3:00 George Kiraz (Princeton University & Beth Mardutho)

Towards a New Edition of the Beth Gazo

3:30 Gabriel Aydin (Syriac Music Institute)

Musical Setting of the Divine Liturgy (Qurobo Alohoyo) in the Syriac Tradition

5:00 Evening Prayers

Third Mawtbā: Keynote Lecture (open to the public)

6:00 Sebastian Brock (University of Oxford)

7:00 Dinner