

Curriculum vitae

András Mércz

Education:

1999-2005: Piarist Grammar School, Nagykanizsa

2005-2012/2013: Pázmány Péter Catholic University, History and Arabic studies

2012-: Pázmány Péter Catholic University, Doctoral School of Linguistics

Scholarships, study trips abroad:

2007-2008: Damascus, Syria

2009: one month Syriac language course, Qameshli, Syria

2010: one month Syriac language course, Turabdin, Turkey

2011: one semester at the Institut Catholique de Paris – Erasmus

2013: one month study trip, Leiden University Library – Campus Hungary

2014: one month study trip, IDEO, Cairo, Egypt

2015: one month study trip, IDEO, Cairo, Egypt

2016: two months study trip, IDEO, Cairo, Egypt

2016: two weeks study trip, Bibliotheca Apostolica Vaticana, Rome, Italy

2017: one month study trip, IDEO, Cairo, Egypt

2018: one week study trip, Österreichisches Staatsarchiv, Vienna, Austria

2018: one month study trip, IDEO, Cairo, Egypt

2018: one week study trip, Cambridge University Library, Cambridge, UK

2019: two weeks study trip, Bayerische Staatsbibliothek, München, Germany

2019: one week study trip, Staatsbibliothek, Berlin, Germany

Work experience:

2012-2014: Silk Road Language School – Arabic language teacher

2014-2015: Balassi Institute – international relations

2015: Ministry of Human Capacities – international relations

2015- Avicenna Institute of Middle-Eastern Studies – researcher

Languages:

French: C1 level

German: C1 level

Arabic: C1 level

English: B2 level

Latin, Ancient Greek, Syriac and Persian: reading skill